

REV. ROBINSON COMES TO FIRST PRES. CHURCH

CLEVELAND MINISTER ACCEPTS PRESBYTERIAN'S CALL HERE JULY 1.

An acceptance of the unanimous call extended May 25 by the first Presbyterian church, through W. C. Lake, clerk of the session, to the Rev. Stewart M. Robinson, of Cleveland, O., to become pastor as successor to Rev. G. A. Papperman, was received late yesterday, with the additional information that he will likely be able to assume his duties here July 1.

Rev. Mr. Robinson, who filled the pulpit of the local church on two occasions during the past few months, made a pleasing impression upon the members of the congregation. He is a young man, 28 years old, a graduate of both Princeton University and Seminary, served two years during the recent world war as chief chaplain of the 78th Division in France and during the past two years has been associate pastor of the Church of the Covenant, Cleveland.

He is married and has a young son. The new pastor comes of a family of preachers, his father and grandfather, both living, being ministers. The officials of the First Church will provide a manse for Rev. Robinson and family.

Dear Stewart,

With summer about half gone this letter probably finds you head over heels in work. I hope your labors have been and will continue to be both enjoyable and fruitful. If your experience is as mine, the summer will be extremely rewarding.

Upon visiting Warfield Club recently, I was pleasantly surprised to find that it has been completely redecorated by the Seminary. Really, it looks almost brand new with its bright wall paper and paint. This gives promise of a happy club year for us all. Also, I learned that the Princeton Institute of Theology fed 79 people for two weeks in the club. Mrs. Farley was in charge and of course did all the cooking. Reports of her meals are very favorable and with the experience she received as well as the little things getting fixed up, we should be in grand shape when our doors open again in September.

Unfortunately, all is not so bright. There is a large item on the club books of unpaid accounts owed to our creditors on last year's business. The only reason for this is that some members failed to pay their club bills. Your responsibility of this amount is $138.00. If all our student accounts are paid up, we shall just have enough money to meet our creditors. Already I have been warned by one firm that with the new government regulations on over-due accounts there will be no further credit on accounts unpaid by August 10th. Please realize the urgency of the matter and do what you can immediately to save the club from an embarrassing situation.

Let not Warfield join the list with the Philippines, Singapore, etc. in the cry, "too little, too late." Rather may our slogan be, "ENOUGH, ON TIME!"

Yours sincerely (and hopefully)
